HOWLAND'S

HOWLAND'S

Entrances in Main Street, Fairfield Avenue, and Cannon Street

Bridgeport, Conn.
Thursday, July 27

Forecast:—Partly cloudy tonight and Friday.

The Board of Health orders that children under 10 years of age be excluded from all stores. We regret the temporary inconvenience to our customers, but all must join in reducing the dangers of disease. Let us be as cheerful as possible about it.

Eager and alert shoppers will find the next two days a delight---for we shall close the Mill End Sale with magnetic Wind-up offerings.

Some things have been overlooked!
Some things have sold till but small quantity remains.

Now out they must all go!
We bring them all together in the Wind-up---at new prices.

Here are some of the lots ready Friday morning. What bargains!

NONE TO BLAME FOR CLERGYMAN'S DEATH IN ENGINE HOUSE

After inquiring into the circumstances surrounding the death of Rev. Lewis Thoray, who fell through a canvas covered hole at No. 7 Engine house last Sunday, Coroner John J. Phelan has found no evidence of criminal responsibility.
The coroner visited No. 7 Engine house yesterday to question the firemen. He learned that the minister had secured permission to go upstairs in the house in order to take a photograph of a crowd below. He had been warned to look out for the hole in the floor but apparently forgot the warning.

SUGAR IS CHIEF EXPORT OF DANISH WEST INDIES

Washington, July 27.—A Department of commerce report on the Danish West Indies, for whose purchase the United States is negotiating, shows sugar to be the principal article of export and coal the principal commodity imported. About $300,000 worth of sugar was sent to the United States last year from St. Croix, the principal agricultural island.
The United States sent about $400,000 of coal to the islands. A rather small amount of cotton also was shipped out, none to the United States. Incidental products used by the United States were goat and sheep skins, straw paper, bay rum and rice. The
